Candidate makes sense

 Comments (No comments posted.)

To the Editor:

Barrington Hills Village President Robert Abboud is running for U.S. Congress. I heard him speak this week, and he makes lots of sense. The United States has more debt in the last eight years than in the previous 200 years. Reduce it. The rapid loss of manufacturing jobs due to bad trade policy hurts the security of our country. Rebuild it. We need to stop our government from using taxpayer funds to buy foreign-made products.

Congress passed a law so Americans cannot negotiate lower drug costs. Repeal it. We need affordable health care because 47 million citizens have none. Cost of the Iraq war is too high in cost and lives. As an electrical engineer, he will lead the fight for energy independence. Please support him. Visit www.robertabboud.com.
